Sharing The Gift of Story

Not so long ago,
When I was just a little bear
I had the best birthday party
My grandpa traveled the world,
Filling a box with stories
Then he gave that box to me....

So come along and play with me in my Storybox
There isn't any mountain we can't climb
Just close your eyes and open your heart
Sharing the gift of story

So come along and dream with me,
I can show you how
Searching for fireflies
By the light of the moon
We'll sail on the ocean,
And float in outer space
And learn so many reasons why....

So come along and play with me in my Storybox
There isn't any sky that we can't fly
Just take up my paw and we're halfway there
Sharing the gift of story

The Safari Song

Safari! Safari!

Let's go on a safari!

Safari! Safari!

Grab your camera and come with me!

Giraffes eat leaves right out of the trees
We don't even reach their knees!

Elephants fill their trunks to drink
Like they have their own personal sink!

Hippos rest in the water by day
Then at night they come out to play!

A group of lions is called a pride
Couldn't be prouder if they tried!

Repeat Chorus

Bibba and Jibba Jam

Bibba-Jibba here,
Bibba-Jibba there
Do the Bibba-Jibba everywhere!
Clap your paws!
Stomp your feet!
We're gonna dance to the Bibba-Jibba beat

Bibba-Jibba here,
Bibba-Jibba there
Do the Bibba-Jibba everywhere!
Stand up tall
Are you ready to move?
March in place to the drumbeat groove
March! March! March! March!

Bibba-Jibba here,
Bibba-Jibba there
Do the Bibba-Jibba everywhere!
When you hear the drum, go "Tap! Tap! Tap!"
Put your paws together and "Clap! Clap! Clap!"

Bibba-Jibba here,
Bibba-Jibba there
Do the Bibba-Jibba everywhere!
Now wobble around
Walk across the floor
Get the wiggles out till there are no more!

Shake shake
Like there are ants in your pants
And do...the Bibba-Jibba dance!

Dust Bunny Blast

Where is he now?
Is he under the bed?
Not under the bed
Try the chair instead!

Not under the chair,
We'll get him soon
Rev your vacuum—"Vroom! Vroom!"

Maybe he hears your vacuum noise!
Be very quiet,
Check under your toys
Is the dust bunny there?
No, that's not it
He got away, but we're not gonna quit!

Look over there!

I think I see something
Get down on your ~~k~~nees
It's under the ~~ta~~ble,
And it's making me ~~s~~neeze!

There he is, that ~~ba~~ll of fluff
Use your vacuum and suck him up
You did it! You got him!
Your house looks clean
Your vacuum is one good
Dust Bunny collecting machine!

Coldybear and the Three Penguins

Coldybear, oh Coldybear
What are you going to do?
Do you think that Baby penguin's lunch belongs to you?

Well, Papa's fish were much too hot,
Mama's were much too cold
When Coldybear tasted the baby's sardines,
He ate every bit in the bowl

Coldybear, oh Coldybear
What are you going to do?
Sit in Baby penguin's seat and break his chair in two?

Well, Papa's chair was much too hard,
Mama's was much too soft
When Coldybear sat in the baby's chair,
He sat till the bottom popped off!

Coldybear, oh Coldybear
What are you going to do?
Rest in Baby penguin's bed and sleep all afternoon?

Well, Papa's bed was much too hard,
Mama's was much too soft
When Coldybear laid on the baby's bed,
He went to the Land of Nod

Coldybear, oh Coldybear
What are you going to do?
Three penguins live inside this house
And this is THEIR igloo

Coldybear, oh Coldybear
What are you going to do?
When Mama and Papa penguin come waddling after you?

Pirates Play-Along Song

Get your shovel and get your map,
Get ready to dig in the sand
We're going to find the treasure now,
And I have just the plan

Let's find two trees that cross like an "X",
And underneath we'll go
Well shiver me timbers, they're right up ahead,
Let out a big "Yo Ho!"

Next go over to Monkey Rock,
And give him a pat on the ear
Now find the "X" that marks the spot,
Alas! We're finally here!

Now get your shovel and start to dig
The treasure is under the ground
Can you guess what it is? I'll give you a hint:
It's crunchy, sweet, and round

You found the sweet cookie treasure,
You've done what a Matey should do
Ye followed the directions and Yer one smart cookie, too!

I'm Not Afraid

I'm not afraid of the dark anymore
My flashlight shines just like the sun
I'm making shadows on my wall,
And I have no fears
And I can make the shadows
Look like bunny ears
I'm just so busy having fun

I'm not afraid of the dark anymore
Now I am brave and counting sheep
The wind is making branches tap my windowpane
It's whistling through the trees,
Just like a choo-choo train
Think I will ride it off to sleep
Goodnight, it's time to go to sleep....

Be a Hero

You don't need super powers
To be a hero to someone else
You just need to be courageous,
And give a little of yourself
You don't need to fly up in the sky
To give someone a hand
There are lots of friends who need you,
And they're all right here on land!

Mommy gives me ice cream
When I have a scratchy throat
When it's cold outside Daddy helps
With zipping up my coat
My best friend drew a picture for me
When I had the flu
Each one of them is a hero
And you and I can be one too!

You don't need super powers
To be a hero to someone else
You just need to be courageous,
And give a little of yourself
So if someone has a problem
And there's something you can do
Remember, helping always makes a hero out of you!
Remember, helping always makes a hero out of you!

The Teeny Tiny Song

Teeny Tiny T.J.
Looked underneath his bed
He saw a little ladybug,
She was black and red
They played inside his room until
The rain had stopped that day
Then the itsy-bitsy ladybug
Smiled and flew away

Let's pretend we're tiny,
No bigger than a bug
Let's be itsy-bitsy,
And sit down on the rug
Now let's touch our tiny toes,
And really wiggle them
Let's close our eyes,
Now open them!
And stand back up again

Let's be little jumping beans,
Hopping up and down
Let's touch our tiny tummies,
And then we'll spin around
Let's be very still now and stand quietly in place

Take two baby bear steps,
And do a little dance
Pretend you're creepy crawly like a teeny, tiny ant
Stretch your arms wide open,
And sit back on the rug
'Cause Teeny Tiny T.J.
Could use a little hug

Three Little Cookies

Three little cookies
Sitting on a plate
Is it lunchtime yet?
Not yet, just wait

Two little cookies
Sitting on a plate
Is it snack time yet?
Not yet, just wait

One little cookie
Sitting on a plate
Is it time for dessert?
Not yet, just wait

No more cookies
Sitting on the plate
One little bear
With a big tummy ache!

The Magic of Sharing

Sharing is like magic
Just like one plus one
If you add them both together,
You can double up the fun

Say you and a neighbor
Have some bearball cards,
Then each of you can trade
Or take turns playing musical instruments
And have your OWN parade!

Sharing something special
Is always twice as nice
There's enough blackberry pie for us
Both to have a slice

So give it a try, and you'll find out
How much fun it can be
Sharing is like magic,
And it starts with you and me
Yes sharing is like magic,
And it starts with you and me!

More Fun & Learning Explorations for You & Your Child

With T.J. Bearytales, your child can experience lots of fun adventures and activities. The ideas below can help you find ways to encourage and develop your child's creative expression.

The activities below can help enrich your child's learning experience.

After you and your child have played with T.J. together:

Help Your Child Learn About Creative Expression:

Singing and dancing are great ways for kids to express themselves! By introducing your child to these types of activities at a young age, you will help her develop a lifelong love of music and movement!

Music Is Play!

Encourage your child to sing along with TJ—and don't be shy about singing along, too! Be enthusiastic with your child! You can even push a chair or two out of the way and turn your living room into a dance floor. Get out there and boogie with your child. You'll both be sure to love it!

Music Is Art!

Let T.J. inspire your child to create his or her own songbook. Ask your child to illustrate his favorite songs—and you can help by writing out the lyrics. This very personal songbook can turn into a springboard for hours of creative expression!

Music Is Language!

It's always fun for kids to make up their own songs. You can encourage this by humming or whistling a favorite tune and asking your child to help you make up some words. It doesn't have to rhyme or even make any sense—it's all about enjoying the sheer fun of putting words to music.

Welcome to the amazing world of T.J. BEARYTALES, where it's always time for a story! In T.J.'s imaginative and engaging world, a story is more than just something to read... it's a place to imagine possibilities and make great discoveries... and get ready for a lifetime adventure in learning!
